Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

February 17, 2004 LB 963

SENATOR SCHIMEK: No. I may not have been enunciating.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, okay.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: (Laugh) Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Okay, now, that's all I'll ask.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: But...okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, go ahead. Unless you're not through. Continue.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: But if the Adjutant General is called to active duty by the federal government, then he has to take leave.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: He or she.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: He or she, yes, thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Because then whatever pay is going to be given would be provided by the federal government to an active duty officer.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Schimek, if you know, what kind of duty...oh, let me rephrase the question. If the Adjutant is placed under federal orders to carry out some duty, but it is not active duty, not active duty status, is there something in the federal law that says the Adjutant can be placed under federal orders to carry out a federally assigned duty that the federal government shall not pay?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Again, Senator, I don't think so. But we will find out.
